The plot is located in a very quiet residential area in Las Norias at only 340 metres above sea level with beautiful sea views. It is accessed by two tarmac side roads, one above and the other below the property along its entire length. Electricity and mains water are connected to the boundary of the plot.

It may be built on by persons who have lost their usual residence on La Palma due to the volcanic eruption of September 2021 and may also be divided into plots of at least 500 m², i.e. up to 10 building plots in total. Buildings of a maximum of the same size may be erected on the plot for residential purposes (house, garage, storage building, pool, etc.) that the affected person has lost. However, new buildings may only have one storey and must be designed to fit in with the surroundings; a maximum of two adjoining residential buildings are permitted per plot.

From the time when the municipality of Los Llanos de Aridane has a valid land use plan again, it is to be expected that it may also be built on for residential purposes by those not affected by the volcanic eruption.
